BIALL 2009 Conference Bursaries Invitation for Applications

Locks and Keys - Safeguarding Legal Information 18 – 20 June 2009 Manchester

CLIG is pleased to offer two of its members financial assistance towards attending the 2009 BIALl conference.

Each bursary will cover the 'early bird' conference fees* and may also contribute towards travel and accommodation costs. If you would like to be considered for a bursary please complete the application form and attach a document of no more than 500 words in support of your application detailing the following:

- Why you would like to attend the BIALl conference
- How attendance would benefit your professional development
- The contribution you or your employer will be making towards attending the conference
- Your involvement with CLIG to date, such as seminars and conferences attended and/or committee posts held

A condition of accepting the bursary is that you write a piece of no more than 1,000 words on the conference for the CLIG website. This can be a general review or a more in-depth look at a particular aspect.

Please return this application form along with your supporting document to: Mark Stanley at Ogier, Equitable House, 47 King William Street, London EC4R 9AF

The closing date for applications is 17 April 2009

The successful applicants will be chosen by majority vote of the CLIG committee. All applicants will be contacted by 24 April 2009 to confirm whether or not their application has been successful.

Further details of the 2009 BIALl Conference can be found on the BIALl website

 To qualify for early bird rates a booking must be made before 1st May 2009. The bursary does not cover the costs of the pre conference seminar*
